Rental Guidelines for Camp Duffield

Special Rentals

Camp Duffield can be made available for commercial or industrial activities on a limited basis but requires Board approval based upon plan of use submitted by the proposed user prior to entering any negotiations for a contract for those activities. The final negotiated contract shall include at a minimum:

1. Written details of the use of camp facilities,
2. Written Safety Plan while on camp property,
3. insurance and liability issues,
4. Dates of use,
5. rates to be paid including deposits and refunds in the event of cancelation
6. any other requirements the board may specify.

The final contract which, shall include the negotiated commercial or industrial activity, must be approved by a formal Board approval process.

Commercial and industrial activities shall be loosely defined as activities run for the purpose of commercial profit by any entity, individual or by a private or public for Profit Corporation.

Contracts

The Camp Duffield Rental manager is authorized to negotiate with renters within the above guidelines.

Recreational use Contracts for the rental of the entire Camp for Overnight or Day rentals must be approved by the board via a simple majority vote in favor of such a rental; e-mail voting is acceptable for such a vote and the result of such a vote should be included in the next month Board minutes.
